TASTING NOTES

Established in 1908 by a collective of wine producers in Veneto, Cielo was born from the vision of combining resources in production, sales, and knowledge. With access to an abundant supply of grapes, Cielo maintains a consistent level of quality while offering wines at friendly prices.

Coming from the country side of the Chianti, this "Grand Tuscan" masterpiece is carefully crafted from a blend of Sangiovese and Merlot grapes.

Deep ruby red in colour with violet reflections. The nose opens with an inviting bouquet of ripe cherries, juicy plums, and dark berries, complemented by subtle hints of vanilla and gentle spice. On the palate, it is smooth and well-rounded, offering a harmonious balance of rich fruit, soft tannins, and a warm, medium-to-full-bodied structure. The finish is pleasant and lingering, with a touch of sweetness and elegant freshness.
