TASTING NOTES

When it comes to big, bold Hawke's Bay Chardonnay, few do it better than Clearview Estate and legendary winemaker Tim Turvey. Their iconic Reserve Chardonnay has long been one of New Zealand's benchmarks for the variety, but you don't need to spend a fortune to experience that unmistakable Clearview style. We recently opened a bottle of this new 2025 Beachhead and were seriously impressed!

Rich, powerful and beautifully balanced, this is an outstanding Chardonnay that delivers well beyond its price tag. And at just $23.99, we believe we've got the best price in New Zealand! Chardonnay lovers, this is one deal you really shouldn't miss.

Made from beautifully ripe Hawke's Bay fruit, with 100% barrel fermentation and 30% new oak, this is unapologetically generous Chardonnay. Layers of ripe peach, stonefruit and citrus are wrapped in creamy, nutty richness, with lovely cashew notes and a generous, mouthfilling texture. There's plenty of power here, but also a freshness that keeps everything beautifully in balance. If you love a proper, full flavoured Chardonnay with all the bells and whistles, this is exceptional drinking for the money!

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"Optimal ripening conditions have produced an opulent Chardonnay in the classic Clearview Estate style. Cashew nut aromatics supported by a rich, creamy viscosity & peach stonefruit flavour profile. 100% barrel fermentation. A full bodied wine with amazing power."

Reviews for the 2024 vintage below...

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, September 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"There's no mistaking the style of this wine with a pure fruit drive laced with a sea-spray and orchard fruits core then layers of wood spice and acidity. Dry, weighty, ripe and pure fruited on the palate as well. Medium+ in weight, core fruit flavours reflect the bouquet with stone fruits and citrus, plenty of acidity for freshness and power and fine tannins for texture and length. There's a hint of gun-flint with a stony earth quality. Well made with best drinking from late 2025 through 2030."

4 ½ Stars & Top 10 Cuisine Chardonnay Tasting 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"Ripe and full from the first whiff to the last remnants of flavour on the palate, this is a borderline bolshie example but has got the goods to back it up. Rich and creamy with luscious stonefruit and citrus flavours throughout."

92/100 Stephen Wong MW, The Real Review, August 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"Subtle on the nose: a hint of cream, wet stone, flint, lemonade, apple and grilled citrus with whiffs of roasted nuts. The palate enters with fairly powerful presence, lightened by a slight spritziness before firm phenolics and wood tannins close in. Roasted cashew flavours emerge late on the palate, sitting alongside ripe apple. Medium-bodied and currently closed but it will come together in the next few months. The finish has sustained length and a refreshing balance of acidity so it will have no trouble developing more complexity in bottle."
