TASTING NOTES

A nod to the chardonnays of the past - oak, buttery toast aromas & a peach stonefruit flavour profile. Tim Turvey and the Clearview team make great Chardonnay across the ranges and this one fills the smooth, creamy, buttery style that is back in vogue - shoulder pads and puffed up permed hairdos are optional.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"A nod to the chardonnays of the past. Oak, buttery toast aromas & a peach stonefruit flavour profile."

Reviews for previous vintage below...

4 Stars Michael Cooper (2019 Vintage)

"Very much a 'style' wine, the 2019 vintage is designed to go 'back to the excesses of the 1980s', with 'loads of oak and buttery toast'. Bright yellow/green, it is a mouthfilling wine, with bold, ripe, peachy, toasty flavours. An extroverted style, it's
