TASTING NOTES

A lush and smooth Cotes du Rhone from the famous Sabon family. A blend of Grenache, Mourvedre, and Syrah from 30-50 years old vineyards. This richly fruited red is dominated by the gently dark berry of ripe Grenache, along with charming expressions of Mediterranean herbs and spice. Soft, succulent and satisfying.

Reviews for previous vintages below...

91/100 James Suckling (2020 Vintage)

"Aromas of dark cherries, dark chocolate, mocha and tapenade. Medium body with fine tannins. Round and fruity with good volume and balance, and a juicy finish. Drink now."

90/100 Jeb Dunnuck (2020 Vintage)

"All the 2020s showed beautifully at this address. Black raspberries, peppery herbs, garrigue, and graphite notes all emerge from the 2020 Côtes Du Rhône, a medium-bodied, rich, structured wine that has plenty of structure and depth. It will keep for 4-6 years."
