TASTING NOTES

A lush and smooth Cotes du Rhone from the famous Sabon family. A blend of Grenache, Mourvedre, and Syrah from 30-50 years old vineyards. This richly fruited red is dominated by the gently dark berry of ripe Grenache, along with charming expressions of Mediterranean herbs and spice. Soft, succulent and satisfying

91/100 James Suckling (2023 Vintage)

"This is rich, fleshy and full-bodied with generous black-fruit aromas (more berry than cherry) plus a touch of spices. Despite its generosity and 15% alcohol, it's well balanced through the rather long finish. A cuvee of 80% grenache, 10% syrah and 10% mourvedre."
