TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Deep red with lush cherry, black currant, and blackberry aromas with a touch of tar and smoke. The texture is smooth—almost silky—and masks the firm tannic structure that lies below and only appears on the lingering finish. The wine is aged for 18 months, 63% in French oak barrels (28% new and 72% second use) and the other 37% in 5,000-litre foudres from Piedmont.

Both vineyards are located close to the foothills of the Andes Mountains, El Mariscal at 650 metres above sea level and Pirque at 570 metres above sea level."

89/100 Wine Enthusiast (2021 Vintage)

"The nose is filled with red berries and forms an enchanting bouquet. This is a concentrated Cabernet that delivers Mediterranean herbs, earthy plums, blackberries and toasted oak flavours."

(2019 Vintage)

"I find the 2019 Marques de Casa Concha Cabernet Sauvignon to be quite subtle and elegant, with clear Maipo profile, a little minty and spicy. Like the majority of varietal wines, it also contains small amounts of other grapes, Cabernet Franc, Syrah and Petit Verdot in this case. It's medium to full-bodied and reveals very good balance and freshness."

---

92/100 James Suckling (2019 Vintage)

"Blackberries, ripe cherries, chili chocolate, cedar, walnuts and charcoal on the nose. Medium-to full-bodied with supple tannins and fresh acidity. Polished, silky and creamy finish. Pretty cabernet. Drink now or hold."
