TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal & 95/100 - New World Wine Awards 2021

Riesling may not be the most popular white variety, but when it comes to offering value, bargains can be had for Riesling lovers. This doesn't come in the most fashionable of packages, but be assured the wine inside is very good (if you are a Riesling lover, it's not about the fashion or look anyway... it's about the taste!). A hint of age, but bursting forth with citrus fruits - mandarins and lemon. Just off-dry sweetness with 7gms residual.

Winery notes (2018 Vintage)

"Our 2018 Marlborough Riesling is sourced from Grant and Kirsten Coles' vineyard at Spring Creek. We have been sourcing fruit from this block since 2005 and the wines have won a number of gold medals and trophies. This year we used just the free run component to craft this wine. It was tank fermented using a yeast called SIHA7. This yeast was originally isolated from a German Riesling ferment and has proven to work wonderfully well under New Zealand conditions. As always, we have left a dash of residual sugar in the wine.

Wines from this vineyard always have great subtlety and purity. Lemons and limes, both the fruit and the blossoms. Medium bodied and beautifully fine with a perfect balance between acid and sugar. The finish is long and pure. 7.2 gms/L RS."

"It is brightly fruited and fragrant on the nose showing Gala apple, nectarine, lemon peel and floral characters. The palate is juicy and vibrant, delivering pristine fruit flavours together with whispering sweetness and refreshing acidity, finishing long and very tasty. Style: Off-dry. At its best: now to 2022."

Michael Cooper (2018 Vintage)

"Finely balanced for early enjoyment, the 2018 vintage is a fresh, medium-bodied wine with vibrant, lemony, appley flavours, showing good depth, a gentle splash of sweetness, and lively acidity. Drink now or cellar."
