TASTING NOTES

A rich and satisfying Primitivo (or Zinfandel as its more commonly known outside of Italy) from the classic territory of Puglia, Italy. This warm region produces a succulent style of red, with reasonable body and darkish fruit but an easy-going nature that suits anything from stews to barbeques and afternoon bites. A ripe and sunny wine from good Mediterranean vintage, this is a delicious wine to be enjoyed by anyone anytime.

90/100 & Best Buy, Danielle Callegari, Wine Enthusiast (2020 Vintage)

"The primarily savoury nose features notes of tobacco, soil and pencil shavings, but raspberry undertones provide balance. The fruit is sweeter and richer on the palate, while smooth tannins and substantial acid spotlight a lingering bite of spice and bitterness."
