TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"Ruby red colour with dark magenta hues. Aromas of ripe strawberries, cherries and red liquorice jump from the glass accompanied by hints of dried lavender and blackcurrant. The palate is plush and fruit-driven. Flavours of strawberries and red cherries fill the mouth and finish with dusty cocoa powder-like tannin. Immediately drinkable."

Reviews for the 2024 vintage below...

DWWA Judges' Comments (2024 Vintage)
"This is an uncompromisingly dark wine that plays to New Zealand’s strengths in terms of purity and vivacity of fruit: raspberry, cherry and plum come streaming from the glass, and the fine meshing of fruit and oak in this wine adds to its lustre and appeal. In the mouth, the wine is both long and broad but not in any way clumsy, and the fruit flavours (raspberry to the fore again) are hypnotic. Svelte tannins are barely palpable, so there’s no textural barrier to entry."

4 ½ Stars & Top 10 Cuisine Pinot Noir Tasting, April 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"There’s an unrivalled depth of colour with juicy yet dark-black fruits on the nose of this very youthful example. The palate is primary and bright with lots of juiciness through the midpalate. Big on structure and presence, while approachable now it will reward with age."
