TASTING NOTES

Te Kahu means 'the cloak' in te reo Maori and refers to the mist that envelops Giants Winery in the Tukituki Valley. Legend has it that this mist was used to protect a mythical Maori maiden from the sun as she visited her lover Te Mata.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Deepest crimson red. Brooding aromatically with notes of cassis, black olive and dried tobacco enveloping a dense core of blue fruits. The wine has a lovely focus on the palate with dark fruits framed by fine tannins to deliver a classical structure with an excellent future ahead."

Reviews for the 2021 vintage below...

93/100 James Suckling (2021 Vintage)

"Perfumed and pretty with currants and black berries as well as hints of cedar. Medium-bodied with fine chewy tannins and a fresh and beautiful finish. A blend of merlot, cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, malbec and petit verdot. Give it three or four years to come together but already pretty."

4 Cuisine NZ Bordeaux Style Red, June 2024 (2021 Vintage)

"Youthful with ripe blackcurrant, dark cherry, warm spice and toasty oak on the nose. The purity of fruit is evident on the flavoursome palate, which has excellent weight and richness while simultaneously being linear and long."

92/100 Erin Larkin, RobertParker.com, January 2025 (2021 Vintage)

"The 2021 Te Kahu Gimblett Gravels Vineyard is structurally firm and yet populated by a flow of silky red fruit. In the mouth, the acidity and tannins are so finely intertwined that it is hard to feel where one stops and the other begins. This is a blend of 49% Merlot, 34% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Cabernet Franc, 3% Malbec and 2% Petit Verdot. It is an elegant wine that speaks clearly of its place, in its austere tannins and lean mineral finish."
