TASTING NOTES

A bright-fruited Crianza red from a top Rioja house. With some dark fruits backing up a juicy and red-fruited style, this is an effortless and versatile companion to any kind of cuisine. From a superb house, this is great Spanish drinking for the price.

91/100 Zekun Shuai, JamesSuckling.com (2021 Vintage)

"A spicy rendition of Cune crianza, but as always this is fruity, with lots of cherries, plums and a touch of white pepper. Juicy and bright, with some restrained fruit sweetness. Very fine-grained, juicy and consistent. Drink now."

16.5/20 & Very Good Value, Andy Howard MW, JancisRobinson.com (2021 Vintage)

"Very CVNE! A fine combination of ripeness of fruit allied to subtle oak, fresh acidity and fine-grained tannins. Appealing and good value at £10. No hurry to drink this, although it is ready now. Love the purity on the finish. Bottle weight 360 g. 85% Tempranillo, 8% Mazuelo, 7% Garnacha. Aged for 12 months in used American oak barrels."
