TASTING NOTES

2 litres of hand-crafted, Central Otago Rosé — that's almost 2.67 bottles delivered in one handy little recycled cardboard brick AND you can have one glass tonight, one glass tomorrow night and maybe not have another until next weekend (unlikely coz this gear is good!) This cute little cube on cube will keep your quality quaff fresh and fruity for 3-4 weeks. So take your time!

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)

"Nose – Raspberry. Peach. Sherbet.

Palate – Lively. Lithe. Savoury.

Drink – Upon purchase; will stay fresh for four weeks after opening.

Of the fruit we received, half was destemmed into bins and left to soak overnight. The next morning, both the whole-bunch and destemmed grapes were pressed together. The juice was settled in tank before being racked to barrel for fermentation. Fermentation took place with indigenous yeast, and the wine was allowed to ferment to dryness. Once dry, we stirred the wine weekly for three months to build texture and complexity. The wine is unfined, gently filtered, and bagged to order."

92/100 Cameron Douglas MS, September 2025 (2025 Vintage)

"Plush, bright, fresh and very fruity at the core with aromas and flavours of fresh strawberries and yellow plums, then red cherry. The fine fruit tannins and acidity add a chalky mouthfeel and crunchy texture contributing to a youthful and vibrant wine overall. A wine perfect for summer drinking alongside your favourite outdoors menu."
