TASTING NOTES

The ebullient Denis Bachelet runs this tiny, 4 ha family domaine in Gevrey-Chambertin towards the northern end of the Cotes de Nuits. From the very beginning, he crafts concentrated, harmonious, pure, individualistic wines. All the wines are made from old, low-yielding vines and follow organic principles.

The Maranges 1er Cru Clos de la Boutière 2022 from Domaine Bachelet-Monnot is a remarkable expression of this premier cru vineyard, showcasing the depth, complexity, and elegance of Pinot Noir. Its harmonious integration of vibrant fruit, refined tannins, and distinctive minerality. While it is delightful to enjoy now, this wine also has the potential to evolve gracefully with several years of cellaring, promising even greater depth and complexity over time.

16+/20 JancisRobinson.com (2022 Vintage)

"Bright, mid ruby. Raspberry fruit on the nose and the palate. A touch of undergrowth, and evident green freshness from the whole clusters. Not insubstantial structure. Firm but with plenty of freshness."
