TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"On the Mont Battois hillside, facing Beaune, the name "Grèves" derives from the sandy and gravelly soil. Separated from the Clos des Fèves by a narrow path this Chanson vineyard covers 2 hectares.

Bright ruby color. Fragrances of peony mixed with intense aromas of ripe red berries (strawberry, cherry) mixed with coffee and spicy notes. Delicate vanilla. Well-balanced and complex. Deep and refined texture. Elegant and well-integrated oak note, well-shaped tannins. Long and spicy finish."

94/100 Charles Curtis MW, Decanter, October 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"This concentrated, powerful wine has superb substance and style with its ripe plum, mulberry fruit aromas, and hints of leather, bay leaf, and black tea. The texture is tannic and full-bodied, with enough potential to age for 30 years if one is so inclined. The domaine's two hectares here are spread over three parcels – each grown, picked, fermented, and aged separately. They will be reunited and bottled in March or April of next year. Open in five to seven years and drink for 30 more."
