TASTING NOTES

Domaine d'Andezon is part of Les Vignerons d'Estézargues which is a co-operative cellar in the small town of Estézargues, located near Avignon. This cuvée has a deep red colour, and displays notes of dark fruits, hints of smoky bacon. Rich, ripe berry flavours and earthy white pepper notes linger on the long finish.

Reviews for the 2022 vintage below...

92/100 Matt Walls, Decanter, September 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"A textured, layered natural wine; very open and giving already. Dark chocolate-coated black cherries and damsons, rosemary and thyme. Succulent texture, with lightly chewy tannins, it flirts with some of the wilder nuances of low-intervention winemaking. It's not as polished as some, but it's very much a wine of place, rather than winemaking, and one with real complexity and texture."
