TASTING NOTES

Domaine des Malandes is a family estate, combining traditional winemaking with the best modern equipment. The care and respect brought to the vinification process, and also to the various locations of the plots, contribute largely to the high quality wines which achieve many International awards.

Lyne Marchive (née Tremblay) has been this 27 hectare domain since 1972, and produces a range of wines that covers the whole spectrum from Petit Chablis up to the two grand crus of Vaudesir and Les Clos, along with the young oenologist - Guenole Breteaudau - who joined the team in 2006. Her approach, in both the vineyard and the cellar is to respect the environment, to produce wines of quality and typicity.

A classic from the Petit Chablis appellation, this is fresh, straight-forward and bright, with notes of white peach.
