TASTING NOTES

From their home of Julianas, the Tête family is making some of the most delicious wine Beaujolais has to offer. This Beaujolais Villages is made with Semi-Carbonic maceration, giving it juiciness but also complexity, a nice step up.

Founded by Francis Tete, a barrel manufacturer and cellar manager, then passed to his son, Raymond, who pioneered direct selling to consumers at the domain, Clos du Fief is a rare 4th generation domaine in Julianas, based at the far Northwest sector of Beaujolais.

Since 1980, Michel and Françoise Tete have developed it and established in 1988 the "Domaine du Clos du Fief". Michel works the old-fashioned way: low yields, meticulously farmed vineyards, and classic winemaking resulting in serious and mouthwatering examples of terroir driven reds. This family domain covers three Beaujolais Crus for a total of 13 hectares planted of Gamay.
