TASTING NOTES

Since the takeover of the family estate in 2012 by Juliette Joblot, the vineyard has been doing wonderfully well with a focus on winter pruning, soil work and above all, ideal harvest dates in the most accurate maturity. The alchemy is also done in the vat room, natural fermentation with indigenous yeasts and careful ageing.

A fresh and ripe nose features notes of cherry and raspberry liqueur along with soft oak, spice and earth nuances. There is good volume and density to the delicious medium weight flavours that are shaped by firm and mildly rustic tannins on the balanced finale.
