TASTING NOTES

From another superb vintage in the Rhone, this is bursting with rich dark fruit, spice and florals. Soumade are experts in their hometown of Rasteau, where the fruit ripens into expressive wines that massively over-deliver on the modest price. This is partly thanks to water-retaining clay soils which help vines in the Southern Rhone heat. This sees no oak, as per tradition, but is fully tank fermented to reveal the full force of that beautiful pure fruit. Delicious!

93/100 & Best Buy Anna-Christina Cabrales, Wine Enthusiast, September 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"Aromatic and captivating, this wine weaves violet into a compact layer of cassis, light musk, and warm earth, creating a perfume-like bouquet that is both deep and delicately floral. On the palate, it's beautifully balanced, with black fruit nestled between a firm, stony texture that adds structure and depth. Approachable now, it's a wine that shines with elegance. Pair it with delicate meat dishes, such as roasted lamb or a fine duck breast, for a perfect match that enhances its nuanced character."
