TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"1701 is an exceptional cuvée made from a rare blend of Grenache on volcanic terroir and Roussanne planted in the middle of the Mediterranean garrigue or wilderness. 1701 is recognised by the press as one of the best rosés in the world.

Pale colour with great limpidity. Nose of small red berries fig. Good structure on the palate, balanced by minerality and freshness. Best within 3 years."

Tamlyn Currin, JancisRobinson.com, March 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Creamy, smooth, blood orange and white strawberries. A touch of vanilla. Cherry blossom and satsuma. Orange zest. A light press of savoury mid-palate weight. More serious than their other rosés but fresh and vibrant with a distinctly provençal profile."
