TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2020 Vintage)

"A really rewarding spicy red wine with authentic flavours from old vines and partial barrel-ageing. Can be served with all sorts of meals and smooth enough to drink without food."

17/20 & Good Value, Tamlyn Currin, JancisRobinson.com, July 2024 (2020 Vintage)

"Coffee, cooked black cherry, sirloin juices and raspberry fruit tinged with cassis. Tannins like helical ribbons of brushed-steel shavings, seeming to twist and turn, sometimes scraping a little, sometimes catching the light, sometimes giving the wine a momentary severity. Wonderful rain-wet, tree-bark sapidity – like a kind of plant-matter minerality, shaping the core structure of the wine. It tastes more of Syrah savouriness than Grenache strawberries (although I don't know what the proportion is), and it's such a great wine for a hunk of pasture-fed, rare smoked/roasted beef."
