TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2023

Winery notes (2017 Vintage)

"Full-bodied, rich and perfectly balanced, Dow's Late Bottled Vintage Ports are carefully selected to reflect the unique characteristics of each vintage, and are only bottled in the best years. Dow's 2017 Late Bottled Vintage Port shares the same provenance with Dow's legendary Vintage Ports, the iconic Douro properties of Quinta do Bomfim and Quinta Senhora da Ribeira. Aged in seasoned oak vats four to six years before bottling and release (ready to drink), and carrying Dow's distinctive drier finish, this is an LBV worthy of attention."

Reviews for the 2016 vintage below...

92/100 James Suckling (2016 Vintage)

"Blackberries with some dried fruit and hints of sultanas. Slightly lifted. It's medium-bodied with lovely sweetness and a lightly chewy and grippy ending that turns sweet and slightly dry at the end. Delicious Port."

92/100 Wine Spectator (2016 Vintage)

"Solid, with a polished set of violet, plum cake, blackberry reduction and ganache flavours cruising through and an echo of Black Forest cake lingering on the finish. This would do nicely in a decanter over a weekend."
