TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Intensely flowery (violets), and fruity (apricot, peaches and citrus). Fresh and round. Rich, unctuous and full bodied. Harmonious with light acidity and round fleshy fruits. Delicate and elegant."

92/100 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (2022 Vintage)

"Mainly crafted from purchased grapes, the 2022 Condrieu from Guigal is always a delicate, elegant rendition of this appellation. Evoking aromas of ripe apricots, honeysuckle, pear and spices, it's medium to full-bodied, round and sappy with a seamless, enveloping texture, concluding in a long, delicate and ethereal finish enhanced by gastronomic bitterness. Consistently well-crafted, this Condrieu is engaging and quintessential to its origin."

16.5/20 Alistair Cooper MW, JancisRobinson.com, October 2023 (2022)

"An attractive nose, slight stone-fruit notes and a slaty, mealy, almost tropical note on the nose. Some real richness on the palate and a weighty mid-palate structure. Layered, long and unctuously powerful."

92/100 JamesSuckling.com, April 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"A juicy, dense and aromatic Condrieu. The nose reveals notes of baked lemons, white peaches and fresh flowers. Medium-bodied with a dense core of white fruit and cooked lemons. Caressing texture, with a well-rounded, mellow and agreeable finish."
