TASTING NOTES

A new vintage that packs a punch coming in at 15% alc., but the wine handles it oh-so-well. This is going to please fans of this wine and some!

Guigal Côtes du Rhône is easily our biggest selling French red. Every year it comes through offering plenty of everything at a very affordable price from one of the Rhône Valley's most famed and respected winemakers. This is one of those wines that's great to have on hand as it suits virtually every occasion.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Deep and dark red. On the nose intensely aromatic, with black fruits and spices. The palate is full, round and sexy. Round and smooth tannins present through the full bodied, ample wine. Overall a complete wine, with a long finish, with elegance and finesse accompanying the abundance of fruit and well-balanced tannins."

5 Stars & 93/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, January 2026 (2022 Vintage)

"It's wonderfully styled and inviting on the nose with dark plum, sweet cherry, cured meat, thyme, and hazelnut aromas. The palate delivers excellent weight, a plump mouthfeel, and velvety texture, wonderfully framed by layers of fine tannins, making it sturdy yet silky and smooth with a lengthy, flavoursome finish. At its best: now to 2030."

92/100 Jeb Dunnuck (2022 Vintage)

"The Cotes Du Rhone is smoking good, offering up blackberries, pepper, and garrigue in a round, supple, medium to full-bodied style. Based on 50% Syrah, 40% Grenache, and 10% Mourvèdre, partially aged in oak foudres, this impressive effort shows remarkable quality for the appellation."

90+/100 Yohan Castaing, RobertParker.com, Wine Advocate, November 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"Notes of lilac, dark cherries and flowers preface Guigal's 2022 Côtes du Rhône, a juicy, round and elegant wine that is also remarkably dense for the vintage and represents excellent value."
