TASTING NOTES

A new vintage that packs a punch coming in at 15% alc., but the wine handles it oh-so-well. This is going to please fans of this wine and some!

Guigal Côtes du Rhône is easily our biggest selling French red. Every year it comes through offering plenty of everything at a very affordable price from one of the Rhône Valley's most famed and respected winemakers. This is one of those wines that's great to have on hand as it suits virtually every occasion.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)
"Deep and dark red. On the nose intensely aromatic, with black fruits and spices. The palate is full, round and sexy. Round and smooth tannins present through the full bodied, ample wine. Overall a complete wine, with a long finish, with elegance and finesse accompanying the abundance of fruit and well-balanced tannins."

5 Stars & 93/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, June 2026 (2023 Vintage)
"This is consistently excellent, offering rich, dark-fruit intensity, warm spice, smoked-meat, and potpourri aromas, followed by a flavoursome palate displaying succulent fruit and polished tannins. Wonderfully balanced and generous with a persistent, structured finish. At its best: now to 2030."

92/100 Cameron Douglas MS, June 2026 (2023 Vintage)
"An excellent expression that speaks to the style, region and red blend classics from the southern Rhone. Aromas and flavours of plums and blackcurrants, raspberry and dried herbs, sage and thyme, medium+ tannins and acidity frame a textured palate with a decent line of fruit and lots of style. Well made with good length and finish. Best drinking from day of purchase through 2029."

91/100 Jeb Dunnuck (2023 Vintage)
"Based on 50% Syrah, 40% Grenache, and 10% Mourvèdre, the 2023 Côtes du Rhône reveals beautiful blackberries, red berries, peppery herbs, and violets. Medium-bodied and supple on the palate, it has a round, charming texture and beautiful balance. Brought up partially in foudres, this pleasure-bent effort will shine over the coming 5-7 years."

90/100 Yohan Castaing, RobertParker.com, Wine Advocate, May 2026 (2023 Vintage)
"The 2023 Côtes du Rhône opens with gourmand aromas of dark fruits, dark cherries and flowers. Medium-bodied, juicy and supple, it’s immediately appealing and easy to enjoy. It's a perfect introduction to the wines of the Rhône Valley."
