TASTING NOTES

Crafted by Scots Master of Wine Norrel Robertson who studied winemaking in Canterbury, Manga del Brujo (The Sorcerers Sleeve) is born of chalk and clay soils on the slopes of Sierra Armantes in the Ribota valley of Calatayud at an altitude of 600-800m above sea. These are free-draining soils with significant diurnal temperature variations. The label is a homage to Mohama Rami, architect to Antipope Benedict XIII (Pedro Martínez de Luna 'El Papa Luna'). 2020 was a precocious vintage harvested 2 weeks earlier than the previous 20 years and is thus characterized by forward fruit and great energy. A savoury style due to extended maceration and 'doble pasata' of the Garnacha over the Syrah skins.

91/100 Luis Gutiérrez, Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, November 2022 (2020 Vintage)

"The 2020 Manga del Brujo is an unoaked red blend produced with 70% old-vine Garnacha, 15% Syrah, 10% Bobal (instead of the Tempranillo used before) and 5% Mazuelo (Cariñena). It fermented and matured exclusively in epoxy-lined concrete tanks. It has an expressive nose, with abundant notes of aromatic herbs and the approachability of the 2020s. The texture felt
