TASTING NOTES

Fourth-generation farming family Pezzuoli has been producing Lambrusco since 1932 from their Cantina, located in Maranello (home of Ferrari cars and the late, great Luciano Pavarotti).

Lambrusco is arguably Italy's greatest and least understood vino frizzante (semi-sparkling wine). A lightly sparkling red wine delivering a gorgeous whack of deep, dark fruit (check out that colour!), spice, acidity and just a wee touch of fruit sweetness that makes it irresistible. Make it your go-to wine for pizza.
