TASTING NOTES

Winery Notes (2026 Vintage)
"Felton Road farms four properties totaling 34 ha in the Bannockburn subregion of Central Otago. Block 2 is an east facing gravel outwash fan situated on the Elms vineyard immediately to the north of Block 3. The soils are very deep, angular schist gravels with a thin loess covering.

Vinification Riesling from Block 2 of The Elms vineyard was hand picked then carefully whole bunch pressed, settled for 6-7 days before racking, then followed by a slow fermentation of 7 weeks with indigenous yeasts to almost complete dryness (7g/L RS). The wine rested on fine lees to build palate weight before bottling in late-August after minimal processing (no fining or cold stabilisation) to preserve and highlight the delicate Riesling characters.

Analytically speaking, this is the most acidic Dry Riesling in our history. Thankfully it has fruit. An abundance of it, in fact. Mandarin, kumquat, melon, peach; a panoply of yellow, pink and orange. First soaring from the glass, then cascading across the palate, this deluge of fruit brings an impression of weight and smoothness; there is tactile depth and harmony. Yet once the fruit subsides, the acidity continues to crackle with energy and notes of sea spray encourage another sip..."

Rated Outstanding & 96/100 Cameron Douglas MS, December 2025 (2025 Vintage)
"A bouquet that begins with scents of white flowers and minerality, a fresh water stream, wet pebbles, then pure fruit scents of lemon and apple, lime and white flowers. Naturally dry with a backbone of acidity, flavours reflect the bouquet with a long finish. Complex, pure, ripe and utterly delicious. A fantastic wine that is excellent drinking today and through the next ten to fifteen years."
