TASTING NOTES

Feudi di San Gregorio is the finest and most awarded winery in Campania, Italy. Situated in the tiny village of Sorbo Serpico in Campania's Irpinia region, this highly acclaimed estate was established in 1986. Over the past 20 years, Feudi di San Gregorio has emerged into the international limelight as a great success story.

Winery notes (2019 Vintage)

"Intense straw yellow colour with a golden shimmer. Light scents of ripe pears, apricots, apples, fern and mint. Lively acidity and spicy minerality typical of a vine cultivated in Tufo, with an incredibly long finish showing soft notes of balsamic."

91/100 James Suckling (2019 Vintage)

"Crushed-stone, cooked-apple and dried-apricot aromas and flavours. Medium to full body with almond and dried lemon to the apple puree."
