TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2020 Vintage)

"Le Sabbie dell'Etna Rosso comes to the glass with a delicious and complex bouquet with notes of cinnamon, black pepper, blackcurrant and cherries. Only the extraordinary terroir of Castiglione di Sicilia, on the slopes of Europe's largest active volcano, could yield a wine with such great personality. The estate's volcanic soils are distinguished by their high nutrient content of phosphorous, which determines the sugar content in the must; manganese, which increases the plants' resistance to the cold; and iron, which contributes to the black grapes' pigmentation, giving the native vine varieties of Nerello Mascalese and Nerello Cappuccio their bright ruby red colour."

93/100 James Suckling (2020 Vintage)

"Notes of blackberries and dried strawberries with chocolate, toasted cedar and cigar ash. Firm and textured with a medium to full body and fine-grained, toned tannins. It's structured yet juicy and vibrant with earthy notes to close. Drink or hold."
