TASTING NOTES

A new arrival from the Barossa and one we think will find plenty of followers. The winery describes it as "Barossa Shiraz made for drinking! Soft, slurpy and textured it is balanced with a fresh mouthfeel and makes you go back for more. Sourced from vineyards in the Barossa and Eden Valley, it is fruit-laden, savoury and dangerously easy to drink!

Winner of the Wine Spectator Critics' Choice Award 2024, a highly sought-after honour in the wine world, recognising wines that demonstrate exceptional quality, meticulous craftsmanship, and a unique expression of their terroir. "To be named among the greatest wines in the world by Wine Spectator is an achievement we are incredibly proud of." - First Drop

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"This Barossa Shiraz is made for drinking! Soft, slurpy and textured it is balanced with a fresh mouthfeel and makes you go back for more. Sourced from vineyards in the Barossa and Eden Valley, it is fruit-laden, savoury and dangerously easy to drink!

A complex nose of dark cherry and blackberry aromas with a hint of forest floor and spice. Vibrant dark cherry and blackberry with a hint of 'wombat rolled in all spice' balanced with an even, textural palate with soft, supple tannins."

93/100 Best Reds of 2024, Weekend Australian, Nick Ryan (2022 Vintage)

"Give a wine a name like this and you'll want to be sure you can live up to naturally high expectations. Thankfully, John Retsas is a man who always delivers. Built on everything the world loves about Barossa Shiraz – richness, generosity, deep wells of fruit flavour – this has always been a wine that punches way above its weight, and long may it continue to do so."

93/100 Andrew Caillard MW & Andrea Pritzker, The Vintage Journal (2022 Vintage)

"Deep crimson, intense black cherry, boysenberry hint walnut licorice aromas. Juicy and richly flavoured with lovely fresh blackberry, black cherry, boysenberry fruits, sinuous chalk tannins and a long thread of aniseed. Delicious early drinking wine, Drink now-soon-ish."

92/100 Dave Brookes, James Halliday's Wine Companion (2022 Vintage)

"Terrific value here. Bright crimson with plenty of crunchy red and black berry fruits, baking spices, licorice, dark chocolate, pressed flowers, crushed rock and panforte. Mid-weighted with a light savoury lean, chocolatey tannins and a medium-length finish that shows some lovely cream oak and pure fruit."

91/100 Stuart Knox, The Real Review, March 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"Opaque core to a deep ruby rim. Plum preserve and violets on the nose. Full weight of black and blue fruits on entry, with a deeper iodine and ferrous note that offers a counterpoint to the plush fruit. Good length and persistence; the tannins offer enough tension to keep it balanced while allowing it to finish with a supple generosity."

90/100 Angus Hughson, Vinous (2022 Vintage)

"The fruit forward and charming 2022 Shiraz Mother's Milk offers up a wild ride of dark cherry and coffee bean aromas with a dark, earthy tinge. It's well-pitched, fresh and vibrant with a supple core of tannins that fits the overall package of red berry flavour well before a gentle finish."
