TASTING NOTES

Not seen on the New Zealand market for a while, the Giesen The Brothers Pinot Noir 2021 has become available due to a cancelled export order.

Access to fruit from high quality Marlborough Southern Valleys vineyards and great winemaking is obviously upping the game for Pinot Noir coming from Giesen.

Winery notes (2021 Vintage)

"Dark cherry, boysenberry and blackberry pair elegantly with delicate floral aromas, backed up by subtle spicy notes of clove and cinnamon. A rich palate, with ample fine, chalky tannin adding structure and length to this wine. Balanced acidity lends energy and elegance.

The best parcels of fruit from the Southern Valleys are managed in small batches. A "hands off" approach was used to retain colour and allow the fruit to showcase distinct Marlborough Pinot Noir character. A period of cold soaking to gently extract flavours and colour prior to fermentation. The wine was matured in a mix —chosen because it gives a unique style to the wine and helps to build complexity."
