TASTING NOTES

The latest 2023 expression of Glenturret's Triple Wood has arrived on our shelves. This years bottling was matured in a combination of sherry seasoned casks from both American and European oak and ex-bourbon barrels, married together to bring a balance of three woods. The aroma of fresh toffee apples joins vanilla custard and crystalized ginger, adding a warmth that twists around rich oak spices. A juicy, fruity flavour of peaches and sticky date pudding lashed with caramel sauce rounds out this quintessential Highland favourite.
