TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal at the prestigious Global Fine Wine Challenge in Australia 2025

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Aromas of raspberry, ginger, orange oil with hints of sweet spice. Sweet and crunchy fruit entry with highly evident red cherry, currants, and hint of cranberry. The sweet spices of juniper, caraway and subtle white pepper, help drive the complexing flavour profile. The tannins are tight and appear slaty to graphite-like with a long fulfilling finish. The wine looks highly youthful which is testament to its careful handling.

The grenache fruit for this wine is sourced from 80 plus year old bush vine vineyards, handpicked and fermented in open-top fermenters with heading-down boards then carefully matured in large French oak Foudres."

92/100 Christina Pickard, Wine Enthusiast, March 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"Once one of Australia's most internationally recognized labels, "Holy Trinity" isn't as visible as it once was. While it still delivers old school Barossa character, there's a modern brushstroke now, too. Aromatically quiet, it offers gentle berry and plum fruit and soft spice. It's more vibrant on the palate, with succulent fruit, lovely freshness and firm tannins. Drink now with protein and a decanter at hand, or over the next several years. "
