TASTING NOTES

We've always believed this Pinot Gris sits among the very best in New Zealand. In the glass, it delivers exactly what you want: a beautifully textured Pinot Gris with generous fruit, fine structure, and a clean, moreish finish that makes it dangerously easy to enjoy.

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"Ripe nashi, vanilla pod, nectarines with subtle baking spices on the nose and palate provide weight to the long palate.

Quince jelly and orange peel notes with an underlying creaminess provide layers, textures and complexity.

Picking decisions were taken to maximize fruit expression whilst still maintaining the delicate balance between ripeness & acidity. The fruit was gently pressed with only the free run juice going to tank & a small portion being run to neutral French oak barrels. A slow cool fermentation followed to ensure a purity of fruit & then aged on yeast lees for approximately 6 months to add texture and mouth feel. Both parcels of wine were then blended together adding different layers of texture & additional complexity to the finished wine before being estate bottled here at the Greystone vineyard."

5 Stars & 95/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, June 2026 (2025 Vintage)
"Elegantly complex and enticing, the bouquet reveals poached pear, citrus peel, fig, biscotti, and subtle savoury notes, leading to a wonderfully weighted palate that's succulent and fleshy. Splendidly balanced by juicy acidity, making it flavoursome and highly enjoyable. Certified organic. At its best: now to 2032."

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, June 2026 (2025 Vintage)
"A wonderfully pure fruited bouquet with scents of pears and ripe quince, mineral and apple, chalk and seashell. Just off-dry as the wine touches the palate with a satin-cream touch and plenty of acidity contrast the fleshy white fruits flavours, white pepper, flowers and mineral. A lovely example, well made and lengthy with best drinking from day of purchase through 2029+."

92/100 Sammy Wilkinson, Wine Writer, June 2026 (2025 Vintage)
"Spiced pear, honey and white pepper open the wine, with some soft peach and creamy lees underneath. Broad and full on the palate, with juicy stone fruit, a fine mineral line and a soft, flowing texture. Fresh, crunchy acidity lifts, while a light dusting of spice carries through on the lightly textural finish. A dry, layered, feel-good Pinot Gris - well-balanced, generous and a weeknight winner."
