TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2020 & 2023

Gold Medal - Gilbert & Gallard 2020

Consistent multi-award winning Champagne. The bouquet is very stylish with creamy fruit, toasty yeast influence, smoky complexity and honeyed maturity. It tastes elegant, long and smooth with lovely richness and fine texture.

Joelle Thomson, drinksbiz Magazine, Decemembr 2024 (NV)

"Two words: exceptional value. Lanvin Champagne is simply the best value for money champagne in New Zealand right now. It has outstanding freshness and depth, with bold creamy aromas balancing its bright, fresh citrus flavours, which give this wine great length. Lanvin remains a family-owned champagne house and one of the most consistent in quality and affordability."

5 Stars, Best Buy & Number 2 Cuisine Champagne Tasting, November 2023 (NV)

"Medium coloured in the glass with lovely creamy, nutty aromas mixed with apple and orange blossom on the nose. The palate is understated and delicate but with everything in its proper place. Beautiful autolytic characters run the length of this lively, linear and lengthy example."

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, September 2021 (NV)

"Very enticing aromas of fresh citrus and peach, no mistaking the brioche and baked goods layers, a touch of nut and an abundance of lees autolysis. A rush of mousse as the wine touches the palate adding a crisp and vibrant texture, flavours of stone fruit and citrus and a fine lees complexity. Balanced and well made in a just dry brut style. Best drinking from day of purchase and through 2025."
