TASTING NOTES

The world's number one selling sherry brand! Harvey's Bristol Cream is the sherry that's been stocked in liquor cabinets for generation after generation.

You'd be forgiven for thinking that sherry is a drink for the oldies and something you'd find in your Christmas trifle. Believe it or not Harvey's Bristol Cream and other premium sherry brands have become all the rage and you can even enjoy it on the rocks with a wedge of lemon or lime!

This blend of four different wines is produced in Spain but bottled in Bristol, England – a tradition that dates back over 200 years.
