TASTING NOTES

For 10 generations the Bourgeois family have been cultivating vines in the heart of the Sancerre region. They established themselves in the well-known village of Chavignol, famous not only for its wines (produced from vines grown on steep and well-exposed slopes) but also for its goat cheese Crottin de Chavignol.

Starting with 2 hectares in 1950, Henri Bourgeois and his sons have enlarged the vineyard to 60 hectares ideally situated on the best slopes of Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Les Baronnes" is a wine with intense aromatics of white flowers, flint and lime. Full and rich with ripe citrus, pine needle and smoky minerality. It exhibits a lovely concentration with a refreshing, long finish. Subtle yet powerful, its persistence and harmony reflect the incredible quality of this unique terroir."
