TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Deep crimson with purple hues. Perfumed aromas of blueberry, blackberry and mulberry, interwoven with notes of white pepper, nutmeg, fresh bay leaf, wild thyme and hints of cedar. The palate is dark and brooding with layers of plush mixed berries, clove, nutmeg and cinnamon, balanced by bright acidity and fine, velvety tannins."

94/100 CampbellMattinson.com, April 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"This is the 20th edition of a Henschke Tappa Pass Shiraz. It's become an important and noteworthy part of the Henschke range. It's a wine that, over the years, has never lacked flavour, though it's added finesse to its armoury, as this wine shows. Indeed this release ramps up the complexity too. It tastes of twigs, herbs, ripe plums and redcurrant, with mint, black olive and woody spice notes woven throughout. There's a firmness to this wine, and plenty of fruit, though there's also more than a passing nod to savouriness. As a result it feels complete."
