TASTING NOTES

This fantastic value Champagne was created in honour of famed historian Jean Lévesque de Burigny, who was born in Reims in 1692. and lived until the age of 93. Burigny, along with his brothers, was responsible for creating one of the earliest modern encyclopaedias.

Produced by the Coopérative Régionale des Vins de Champagne in Reims, this mouthwatering champagne was crafted from Pinot Meunier, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir by Elisabeth Sarcelet, one of the only female winemakers in the whole of the Champagne region.

A finely balanced Champagne with lovely autumnal apple and pear aromas over a seductive palate of toasted biscuit notes and a fine mousse of bubbles.
