TASTING NOTES

A superb Chablis from boutique leaders in the region, Jean Paul and Benoit Droin. The history of the family Droin (pronounced like "du-wah") goes back a long way. Benoit is the 14th generation, though with a magic touch that has made him a leader in the region. Grown on the proper sea-shell soils which make the style famous, this village white conveys beautiful citrus and florals infused with a harmonious minerality.

94/100 Charles Curtis MW, Decanter UK (2024 Vintage)
"Stylish, with a bit of reduction and notes of lemon peel, green apple and pear, along with a suggestion of acacia blossoms and honey. The clean, pure fruit continues on the palate, where there is more density and weight than many. This will drink well on release and continue to improve with mid-term cellaring."
