Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"A beautiful perfume of ripe blackberry, black cherry, boysenberry, and dark plums, layered with hints of violets, vanilla, and cocoa spice, alongside subtle earthy notes and a whisper of liquorice. A big, generous mouthful of concentrated dark berry fruit, supported by firm, grippy tannins give a wine with structure and power. Spicy oak and juicy acidity round out the palate, promising the ability to age gracefully for many years.

The grapes for this Pinot Noir were grown in Marlborough's Southern Valleys. The fruit was predominantly hand-harvested over a two week period from mid to late March as optimum ripeness was reached in each block. At the winery, the fruit was de-stemmed into small open-top fermenters and cold soaked for 5 to 10 days. The juice was then fermented with indigenous yeasts, and plunged by hand once a day to extract a good amount of colour and tannins. It was pressed immediately upon reaching dryness and a portion was transferred to French oak barrels for maturation. After a full malolactic fermentation in spring, the wine was bottled in late March 2025."

5 Stars & 94/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, March 2026 (2024 Vintage)

"This is immediately appealing on the nose with aromas of dark plum, cherry, thyme, rich floral, and roasted nuts. The palate delivers succulent fruit intensity, a fleshy mouthfeel, and well-infused tannins, making it beautifully balanced and flowing to a lengthy, satisfying finish. At its best: now to 2032."

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, March 2026 (2024 Vintage)

"Tasted previously this is still a delicious wine with core aromas and flavours of red berries and plum, there's layers of spice and oak influences, polished tannins and a seam of acidity that carries flavour and texture. Precise and salivating, gently saline and perfectly balanced. Rather delicious, a wine that will continue to age well from day of purchase through 2032."

91/100 Stephen Wong MW, The Real Review (2024 Vintage)

"Dusty tannins coat the mid-weight core of black fruit, almost brooding under a cloud of smoke and coffee. Well balanced between its fresh acidity, youthfully grippy tannins and lingering flavours of blackberry, plum and violets, this will require another year in bottle to relax and round out before providing several years of contemplative drinking as it unfolds."
