TASTING NOTES

La Vieille Ferme is a hugely successful French wine brand produced by the Famille Perrin (of Château de Beaucastel fame). This beautifully bright rosé is fresh and aromatic with a delicate bouquet and plenty of red and citrus fruit flavours.

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)

"A pretty petal-pink colour with silvery highlights. Fresh and delicate, the nose opens with a floral bouquet dominated by roses, before revealing luscious notes of crushed strawberries. The lively palate is all about indulgence with aromas of vine peaches and pear drops, well-balanced by a refreshingly saline finish."

90/100 Cameron Douglas MS, July 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Very bright with a polished silver and delicate salmon hue leads to a bouquet and palate of white rose and cherry, a fine cherry and fruit tea quality the a seam of mineral in the form of wet pebble and stone. Crisp and dry with a core of fruit and satin texture. Balanced and well made with best drinking from day of purchase through 2027."

Joelle Thomson, drinksbiz Magazine, December 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"A cheeky little southern French Rosé at an appealing price with even more appealing dry flavours of crisp red berries and dried red fruit. A savoury note adds depth to this medium-bodied wine. Great summer drinking and excellent value for money."

Elizabeth Gabay MW, Decanter UK, March 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"A rosé with all the freshness of grapes sourced at 300m altitude in the Luberon and Ventoux. The original rosé in the Perrin range, this wine was made to represent Rhône rosé and shows real left-bank typicity, with longer finesse compared to the boldness and structure of the right bank. Back in the 1970s the colour was darker, but today the wine has a classic pale peach-pink hue with pretty red fruit aromas. On the palate there is zesty yellow citrus and pink grapefruit acidity, and it's saline, pithy and crunchy with some fine minerality, elegant red fruit and structure."

4 ½ Stars & Top 10 Cuisine Rosé Tasting, December 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"This wine has the palest onion-skin colour with a very light-copper tinge. The nose is both fragrant yet subtle and delicate with aromas of savoury herbs, some stonefruit and citrus zest. It's refreshing and clean with a nice textural mouthfeel and a dry finish."
