TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)
"The Fifth Wave is Langmeil's most treasured Old Vine Garden Grenache and is dedicated to the fifth generation of the Lindner family. Planted in the last century, The Fifth Wave is our 'call to arms' to preserve, promote and protect the best of the Barossa.

Aromas of dark cherry, raspberry and sweet spice mingle with hints of cedary oak and savoury notes, adding complexity. Juicy red berries and dark cherries flow through the palate, with the soft, sweet fruit balancing with sweet and briary spices. The finish lingers on a fruity and spicy note with typical chalky yet fine-grained tannins."

92/100 Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, April 2025 (2022 Vintage)
"Cherry, raspberry, some toast and clove spice, but also quite a bit of perfume and almond paste. It's packed with flavour, has some energy though, with spiced biscuits, red fruits, chamois-like tannin, poached strawberry with ginger on a finish of good length. A bit chewy, but a nice wine all up. Talks Grenache more clearly than the 2021."

91/100 Erin Larkin, RobertParker.com, Wine Advocate, August 2026 (2022 Vintage)
"The 2022 Fifth Wave Grenache leads with raspberry tart, licorice, pastry, sweet roasted beets and hung deli meat. The palate is both sweet and meaty, with exotic spices feathering the edges. The alcohol here is a feature of the wine and serves to slightly dry out the finish and create warmth through to the very end, enhancing the notes of goji berry that exist here. Black cherry and maraschino are the lasting impressions."

91/100 Decanter UK, October 2024 (2022 Vintage)
"Raspberry, violet and char aromas lead to dense blackberry flavours, supported by fresh acidity. Ripe tannins provide a long, high-octane finish. Warming notes of fresh black plum, vanilla and spiced, baked plums."
