TASTING NOTES

Probably the Best Value White Wine in NZ!

Following the success of previous vintages, which not only claimed a Gold Medal at one of New Zealand's top wine shows but was also spotlighted by Decanter UK Magazine as one of the "great value white wines to try under £20", the new 2025 release has big shoes to fill. And it absolutely delivers.

Still priced at just $11.99, it continues to offer unbeatable value, but it's what's in the glass that really shines.

The 2025 vintage builds on the freshness and vibrancy of its predecessor, showing the same bright, light and clean style, with lifted floral aromatics, juicy stonefruit, and a zesty citrus drive. There's an added layer of complexity this year from the brilliant 2025 vintage, with more defined mineral notes and a slightly drier, crisper finish, making it an excellent match for seafood or light summer dishes.

A fantastic alternative for fans of dry Riesling or Pinot Gris, this vintage once again overdelivers on both quality and value.

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)

"This aromatic white grape hailing from Spain performs exceptionally well in Gisborne, a beautiful coastal region on the east coast of New Zealand's North Island. Reasonably new to New Zealand, Albariño is a crisp and refreshing white wine quickly winning new fans everywhere.

Gorgeous little citrus flowers link arms with melon and peach to dance in the sunshine, always maintaining an air of class. Meanwhile, lime lingers in the shadows vying for attention. Light enough to enjoy on its own, the refreshing citrus and hint of salinity in Albariño make it a perfect match with your favourite seafood."

Reviews for previous vintages below...

90/100 Cameron Douglas MS, September 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Ripe and fruity, varietal with a peach and yellow apple bouquet, some citrus, flowers and white spice. Delicious on the palate with a satin texture, persistent fruity, peachy flavours, a backbone of acidity with a fine lees quality. Best drinking from 2025 through 2027."

90/100 Natalie Earl, Decanter, Great-value white wine to try under £20, September 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"This aptly named wine - Left Field - is certainly compelling. Its character is big and bold, rich, ripe, tropical and a little buttery. Yet in the mouth it's so racy, there's so much zest and zip with a seriously mouthpuckering finish."

Good Value, JancisRobinson.com, April 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Key-lime pie and white-flower aromas lead into a broad, creamy palate beautifully balanced by crisp acidity. Long and perfumed."
