TASTING NOTES

Winner of a 99/100 rating from Luca Maroni, Italy's leading wine critic, and his Overall Best Wine winner in his 2022 Yearbook of the Best Italian Wines!

Winery notes (2021 Vintage)

"The best red grapes, direct from the land around Villa Da Vinci, in the Tuscan hills. An iconic flavour, just like the artwork featured on its label, a masterpiece by a young Da Vinci. A Toscana Rosso, made from a combination of Sangiovese, Merlot and Syrah, which unite to create a harmonious wine with a consistency, balance and aroma that evokes each of its constituent varieties.

Aromas of spices, with clear balsamic notes and a hint of blackberry conserve. Soft, balanced, and warm. A wine of impressive structure."
