TASTING NOTES

With its colourful retro style, Les Dauphins captures the “joie de vivre” mood of Paris in the roaring 1920s, a time when the wines of the Dauphiné region of France became very popular due to their fruit-forward, palate-pleasing style.

Now “Joie de vivre” also comes with winegrowing as Les Dauphins Côtes du Rhône vineyards are now fully High Environmental Value certified and the new generation of young winegrowers is shaping Les Dauphins spirit: young, vibrant, committed, and positive.

90/100 & Best Buy, Anna-Christina Cabrales, Wine Enthusiast, November 2024 (2022 Vintage)

"This wine opens with fresh aromas of juicy black cherry, blackberry, rose petal and freshly turned earth. The palate showcases a fresh layer of black fruit, framed by spice and youthful tannins that swiftly dry and reset the palate for another sip. Enjoy now."
