TASTING NOTES

Bodega Los Haroldos is a leading Argentinian winery with a unique history; its founder Haroldo began selling wine from a barrel atop his bicycle as a young man in 1939 and the winery is now run by the third and fourth generation of the same family.

Far from your run of the mill Malbec, this offers a big step up from other Malbecs found around this price point. With cooler weather around the corner, this will be just the tickets to enjoy with hearty rich casseroles, red meat, bean and mushroom based stews and blue cheese.

Winery notes (2020 Vintage)

Our grapes come from different soils, climates and regions of Mendoza; among cold winters and dry, hot summers with cool nights. Pronounced aromas of ripe red and black fruits, with notes of its oak ageing. Soft mouthfeel and sweet tannins typical of this
