TASTING NOTES

We discovered this fantastic gin late in 2019 and were the very first retailer to stock it. In a very short time Peninsula Gin has gained favour with the many gin lovers amongst our customers. But it hasn't been an overnight sensation for the fine folk at Lyttelton Distillery Company, more like a labour of love with almost three years from conception to finally being able to bring a premium product to the market. And premium it is. Also proudly local, beautifully presented and an absolute delight to drink. At the core of Peninsula Gin is the traditionally made alcohol that starts with the fermentation of local grains and manuka blended honey.

"From the heart of Banks Peninsula comes a special gin with a carefully chosen balance of botanicals including juniper berry, manuka, wild thyme, citrus peel, geranium, angelica, cardamom, coriander and grains of paradise."
