TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)
"Made from Syrah Chapoutier's red Crozes-Hermitage Les Meysonniers comes from vines which are more than 25 years old. Chapoutier's Crozes-Hermitage vines are grown on gentle slopes facing south. The soil is made up of a mixture of clays, pebbles and gravels.

Red fruit and blackcurrant dominate the nose, followed by aromas of violet. A generous and round tasting wine with a finish of stewed fruits and a hint of vanilla."

92/100 James Suckling (2023 Vintage)
"A well-balanced, peppery and chalky wine with aromas of dark berries, meat and fresh black pepper. It’s medium-bodied with chalky tannins. Inky and delicious, with a flavourful, tactile finish. From organically grown grapes."

92/100 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (2023 Vintage)
"Round and mouthfilling yet not heavy, with a mix of meaty notes and red fruit flanked by dusty red earth and bacon lard. The tannins are finely polished, for a ripe, chewy profile, with a subtle tug of tar, adding to the brooding density. "

90/100 Jeb Dunnuck (2023 Vintage)

"The 2023 Crozes-Hermitage Les Meysonniers has slightly riper aromatics of black raspberries, pepper, wildflowers, and spice that carry to a medium-bodied Syrah that's beautifully balanced, with fine tannins and outstanding length. This cuvée comes from 100% Syrah and spent 12 months in 90% concrete tanks and 10% used puncheons."
